Overview:

The Foundation

The Daniel & Pamella DeVos Foundation's purpose is to build strong, healthy communities by investing in the arts, education, and community well-being.

Our purpose is to build strong, healthy communities by investing in organizations that positively impact our culture.

Apply

The Daniel & Pamella DeVos Foundation receives hundreds of requests each year from worthy organizations.

Due to the high volume of requests, the foundation primarily focuses its support on partners closely aligned with our three areas of focus and largely serves the greater Grand Rapids community. Requests can be submitted at any time. They are reviewed on a rolling basis, and the process generally takes three to four months from application submission to notification.

You can learn more about this opportunity by visiting the funder's website.

Eligibility:

- Charitable organizations that have met the IRS 501(c)(3) requirements, as well as churches and government entities, are eligible to apply to the foundation.
- The foundation respects the efforts of organizations working together.

    - The coalition will need to identify a fiscal sponsor, a nonprofit that will serve in a policy-setting role and be responsible for fiscal management and reporting related to the project.
    - The fiscal sponsor should be the applicant and would be the recipient of the grant if one is awarded.
- Nonprofits may submit an application for general operating, capital campaign, or program/project support once per calendar year.
- The foundation may consider concurrent general operating and capital campaign requests.
- Event sponsorships will be considered in addition to the operating requests; however, only one event will be considered annually.
- If your application was not approved, you may apply again in the next calendar year.
- Organizations are eligible to reapply when their current grant term ends, typically 12 months or the current calendar year.
    - Most organizations are eligible to reapply the following calendar year.
